In the initial filings in the case, estimates of costs and revenues for MOL were given through 2003. In more recent filings this information has been provided only through 2000. Is it now your position that costs and revenue estimates for the years 2001-2003 are irrelevant to the case? If not, please provide your current best estimates of costs and revenues for the years 2001, 2002 and 2003.
